

LUKE

LUKE 23

Read either before your small group or all together at the start.

1. Read Psalm 31 together then take some time to reflect on what stood out to you from the passage. What did you find encouraging or challenging about what you read?
2. Take some time to read through Luke 23 together. Reflect on the passage. What stands out to you? What have you not noticed before? What encourages or challenges you? What might the Holy Spirit want to say to you in light of this part of Jesus' story?
3. Take some time close in prayer. Begin by praying for your own salvation and redemption through Jesus, thanking him for the goodness and graciousness he's shown you. Then perhaps take some time to pray for some people you know who don't yet know Jesus. Pray for them by name, asking God to turn their hearts toward Jesus. Pray that you might be used by God to share about Jesus.
4. You may want to close by playing a worship song and a final prayer or even sharing communion together. Whatever feels right for your group.
